Behavior is Communication

Webinar with Sally Burton-Hoyle, Associate Professor, Eastern Michigan University, Department of Special Education, Autism Spectrum Disorders.

January 12, 2016

6:00-8:00 p.m.

River Raisin Rooms 1 & 4

Who should attend this Webinar?

Families of children/young adults with disabilities and/or learning challenges, school staff, community members, and organizations

All behavior is communication. We know that children who exhibit challenging behaviors do so for a specific reason. This workshop will help you determine what they are saying with their behavior and how to substitute a more acceptable way to communicate that message.

Registration & Childcare Reservations

Register with Kim Torrance

(734) 242-5799 ext 1444 or kim.torrance@monroeisd.us

We will provide babysitting and snacks.

To reserve your child's place, please indicate in your phone message or email, if your child(ren) will need diaper changes or has special needs. All childcare items (diapers, food, etc.) MUST be provided by parents.

*All workshops are free and open to the public.
